

LIVELY BIDDING ON SONOMA'S SEPTIC TANK SEWER SYSTEM

Fifteen Firms Compete for the Work in Sums Varying Between $10,322 and $19,794—Contract Will be Awarded Monday Night

Bids for constructing Sonoma's septic tank sewer system were received and opened by the City Trustees at an adjourned meeting held last Monday evening. There were fifteen firms represented who submitted bids for either the pipe to be used in installing the system or the entire work of construction.

There was a great difference in the bids submitted by some of the firms, notably those of the W. C. Foggerstrom, whose bid for the work complete was $19,794.27, and that of J. W. Nichols, whose bid was $10,322.11.

Following were the bidders and the amount of their bids:

John Batto & Sons, pipe only, $4,427.68.
Spring Construction Co., pipe, $9,084.99; complete, $13,484.40.
Clark & Son, pipe, $4,182.
Chambers & Healey, complete, $10,781.70; without pipe, $6,599.70.
W. C. Foggerstrom, complete, $19,794.27; construction, $13,792.37.

Windor Pottery Works, pipe $3,933.60.

O'Brien & Co., pipe, $4,205.45; construction, $6,176.78.

C. E. Vincent, complete, $10,853.30.

Flynn & Tracy, complete, $17,629.48.

J. W. Terrell, complete, $11,859.26; construction, $6,814.41.

Federal Construction Company, construction, $7,984.10.

A. Alvers, complete, $12,869.17; construction, $7,632.19.

J. W. Nichols, complete, $10,322.11.

Glading-McVein Co., pipe, $4,197.76.

Williams & Bellser, complete, $12,333.36; construction, $7,852.36.

Steiger Terra Cotta Co., pipe, $5,044.80.

Each bid was accompanied with a certified check covering 5 per cent of the amount bid, and these checks which, in the aggregate, amount to a small fortune, will be returned to the unsuccessful bidders after the award has been made by the Board of City Trustees.

After the bids had been read off by Clerk Gottenberg, further action was postponed until Monday evening, when the Board meets in adjourned session to award the contract to the lowest and best bidder.

The amount of bonds provided for at a special election held last year—$20,000—it is thought will provide sufficient revenue for the purchase of the land, septic tank, cost of pipe and construction. However that may be, Mayor Cummings and his fellow councilmen as soon as the contract is let will push the work through to speedy completion, to the end that ere the summer is over Sonoma's much-discussed modern septic tank sewer system will have become a reality and a monument to the en-

SONOMA'S DEFEAT SANTA ROSA MOOSE

Our Boys Show their Superiority Over Rose City Ball-Tossers—Score 5 to a Goose-Egg

The Moose baseball team of Santa Rosa again went down to defeat before the invulnerable Sonoma Regulars in an exciting game played Sunday afternoon at Recreation Park, Santa Rosa. The Moose nine never got a look in and were defeated by a score of 5 to 0.

The pitching by "Sap" Jansen and the catching of Ray Poppe were features of the game, the former striking out eighteen of the Moose. The short stop, basemen and fieldmen also did fine team work and each contributed his share toward winning the victory over a team that were no slouches themselves.

A large number of fans were present from the valley towns to root for the home team and to rejoice with them over the victory won.

The line up of the teams were as follows:

Sonoma—Poppe, catcher; Jansen, pitcher; Lutgens, first base; Brown, second base; Nordstrom, third base; Arnold, short stop; Kiser, left field; Greeley, center field; Reed, right field; Pauli, extra.

Santa Rosa—Couts, catcher; Enz, pitcher; Showalter, first base; C. Barnes, second base; Andrews, third base; Thompson, short stop; Kearns, left field; Hauke, center field; Vitale, right field; West and Ungewitter, extras.

Woman's Club Plans Fourth of July Celebration.

At the social afternoon last Friday, Mrs. R. P. Hill read a deeply interesting paper entitled "How California Takes Care of her Dependents and Delinquents," based on the reports of the State institutions for criminals, wayward youth, insane, feeble minded, orphans (those receiving state aid) and deaf, dumb and blind, the statistics regarding which are truly startling.

After two of Mrs. Emparan's always charming songs, tea and cakes were served by Mrs. M. Shaw, the hostess for the day.

On Saturday afternoon a meeting was held by the newly appointed Fourth of July Committee, consisting of Miss Meta Stofen, Chairman, Mrs. Hunter, Miss Waterman, Miss Cook, Miss Murphy, Mrs. Emparan, Mrs. Wicker, Miss Cleve, Miss Pemberton and Mrs. Duhring, together with the President, Mrs. Hotz. The committee decided on a program of events which will make the coming Fourth a Red Letter Day in the annals of Old Sonoma and afford fun and patriotic entertainment for young and old from early morning till late at night—patriotic exercises in the forenoon in the Plaza; luncheon served under the trees in cafeteria style; a unique jolly affair in the City Hall with side shows in addition; an opportunity for those who wish to attend the meet of the Driving Club; a high-class entertainment in the evening to be followed by a grand ball.

The ladies expect to raise a goodly sum of money to aid in establishing the new Carnegie Library.

The Hay Market This Week

Somers & Co. of San Francisco report the condition of the hay market this week as follows:

"Arrivals of hay continue quite heavy during the past week, 2871 tons having been marketed. Trade conditions are very dull, there being but comparatively little shipping going on, and the local demand is anything but satisfactory.

A great many consumers have sufficient supplies to carry them into the new season, and others are buying simply from hand to mouth. A few weeks ago there was some movement on the part of consumers to lay in a supply of old hay, which would carry them several months into the new season, anticipating an advance in price, owing to the bad reports which were coming in from the country. However, of late this movement has stopped upon realization of the fact that the hay crop has improved a great deal on account of the weather conditions. We daily have reports from country districts to the effect that there will be a great deal more hay than was anticipated three or four weeks ago and in the weather conditions which have existed of late continue there will be still more improvement and a good crop harvested.

"A few cars of new hay have been shipped to market; they, however, receive but little attention as there is no demand for it, although people are naturally interested as the first new hay makes its appearance. Quite in contrast to this were conditions two years ago when there was but little old hay on hand at this time, and exorbitant prices were paid for any kind of early new hay. It is our opinion that new hay will go quite slowly until well into the harvest season, for old hay is preferred and supplies are sufficiently heavy to meet all demands, and even then, there will be a large quantity of old hay left on which a second year's storage will be paid.

More Improvements at Wake Robin, Jack London's Home

"Wake Robin," the picturesque home of Jack London, the gifted author, whom Sonoma valley is proud to claim as one of its citizens, is to be made more attractive than ever by the addition of a fine and artistic bungalow, the foundation for which is already laid. Since locating his country home in a beautiful spot in the mountains near Glen Ellen a few years ago the novelist has spent thousands of dollars in improving and beautifying its broad acres and not in vain, for here the gifted writer has given to the world some of the brightest thoughts of a fertile brain through the medium of his facile pen.

Vagaries of the Weather

The clerk of the weather has kept our people guessing some the past week. One day it has been as hot as—well, the place where there is no water, and it sure looked as though those good old summer times were with us again. The next day, however, suffering humanity, had to discard light wearing apparel and jump into the winter clothes again. In short the weather clerk has handed us out the past week blazing hot days, cold and windy ones, with a frost or two in the morning and some fog, which of course is not to the liking of either saint or sinner, and keeps one guessing when this sort of thing is going to cease.

FRIGHTFUL RUN-AWAY ACCIDENT.

Joe Kiser and Family of Schellville Hurdled from Rig and Child's Skull Fractured.

While Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kiser and their two little boys of Schellville were returning home after a short visit in this city on Saturday afternoon last they met with an accident which nearly cost them the life of their little six-year-old son Anton.

When nearly opposite the San Lewis school house the horse attached to their rig ran away and became unmanageable owing to the breaking of the bit. Seeing that they were at the mercy of the frantic animal Mr. and Mrs. Kiser each seized a child and jumped from the buggy. The father and youngest child escaped unscathed, but the mother and the other child, six-year-old Anton, were hurled to the hard road bed with great force and rendered unconscious.

A telephone call hurried Drs. Thomson and Hays to the relief of the victims of the accident. It was then discovered that Mrs. Kiser had been badly bruised about the face and body but as she was not dangerously hurt she was soon restored to consciousness. Little Anton, however, was less fortunate and an examination disclosed the fact that his skull had been badly fractured on the right side.

The little fellow was taken to the Broadway Sanitarium where he is under the care of Dr. Thomson, who says he will recover.

The frantic horse, after the family had jumped from the rig, tore madly down the valley for several miles and finally came to a halt without injury to himself or the vehicle.

Decoration Day.

PLACE not the wreath of grief alone this Decoration Day but weave some bright flower into that other garland and place it upon the resting places of our dead heroes that they may know that blessed peace is recovered and that the hearts of men are beginning to feel that the awful sacrifices on the battlefields of the past must be no more. Such heroism is that which each headstone of the sleeping soldier tells should call forth honest tears—pity that our country now so fair and formidable struggled up through rivers of crimson glory, the very blood of brothers cementing our final foundation. Our heads bow in grief and that is the sentiment which should prevail. We honor our fallen heroes, but each succeeding generation is beginning to realize that their noble sacrifice is not for us to emulate. We are here to make conditions and bring about sentiments which will do away with calamitous war and, the message of our triumphs in creating this sentiment will surely waft its way to that Great Beyond from whence it surely came. According to the natural laws of evolution man must rise to a higher and higher consciousness and the realization of the barbarity of war is light from the divine spark within us. Life itself is a series of sacrifices. We who are here today are but a strata builded upon others, which existed even as does this. It would seem that this present day strata is rich indeed when we assay the spirit which spells peace and yet there is enough of the primitive, enough of the rugged, enough of the man, enough of the Christian to make us enthuse over the metal of our American soldiers. To leave all, to fight and die for one's country, there is a richness in such a spirit which we cannot deny. Preach peace we may and keep the spirit of war in subjection, but it makes us wonder if the posterity of this anemic philosophy will ensure the perpetuity of the nation.

There is a strong belief in men, however, that there is a foreshadowing of necessity in our tendencies and if we are right, there is to be a call in the future for men greater than the greatest warriors ever were, and we should develop toward this end. The brain will direct our greatest battles, be they fought in the council or on the field. The highest tendencies in our boys should be cultivated. The fighting instinct is there. Let it lay dormant. We do not need boy scouts and military academies to keep alive soldiery.

For the manliness, courage, honor and unselfishness an American should possess let us look to the roll of honor whereon are inscribed the names of our dead heroes.

Circumstances forced them upon the battle-field and we of today should pay them highest tribute for the men that they were, and the heroes they proved themselves has been the salvation of America. If those who have gone to their eternal peace had not sacrificed their very lives, we would not be the free agents we are today, living in an environment which makes it possible to promulgate our message of international peace.

"Lincoln, the greatest of our mighty dead, whose memory is as gentle as the summer air, when reapers sing among the gathered sheaves, copied with his pen what Grant and his brave comrades wrote with their swords."

Can't Fool the People all the Time.

THE recent indictment of Henry P. Dalton, for seventeen years Assessor of Alameda county, for demanding a bribe of $25,000 from the Spring Valley Water Company and who was trapped into accepting $5,000 of the amount, has created confusion in the ranks of the howling, hypocritical "reformers" of Alameda county of whom the boodling Dalton was a bright particular star. The accused official, who was caught dead to rights with the goods on him, was one of the most blatant demagogical howlers against the corporations during the last political campaign and now he has been caught red-handed in levying tribute upon one of them. Dalton had many prototypes in the fool legislature which convened in Sacramento last winter who were sent there by the people to purify politics in this State and to put the corporations out of business. But why expatiate further on this subject. The people were fooled last election, but they will have a care when next called upon to cast their ballots. In the language of the lamented Al.raham Lincoln, whose name the hypocritical reformers linked with that of Roosevelt, to ride into office to secure the spoils, "You can fool the people some time, you can fool some people all the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time."

DIAZ, the dictator of the Republic of Mexico, has resigned, and the subjects of that country may now be given a republican form of government. Diaz was a President in name only, and for years has ruled Mexico with a rod of iron.

A LEGAL DILEMMA

Tangle of Red Tape In an English Extradition Case.

GETTING AROUND THE LAW.

Only the Quick Wit of the Canadian Police Inspector Kept a Notorious Criminal in Custody When In Reality He Was as Free as the Air.

The manner in which a prisoner extradited to England from a foreign country is treated while on the voyage home depends very much on the detective who has him in charge and also on whether or no there is any suspicion that he may be contemplating violence either to himself or to others.

For instance, in the case of Jabez Balfour, who was taken to England all the way from Buenos Aires, there was a strong suspicion—probably ill founded—that he contemplated committing suicide. Consequently Inspector Froest, who had him in charge, decided to take no risks that he could possibly avoid.

The regulations do not permit of an unconvicted prisoner being handcuffed on board ship once the vessel has left port, and he must be allowed one hour's exercise on deck each day. These indulgences, if indulgences they may be called, were therefore not withheld from Balfour.

But he got few others. For twenty-three hours out of every twenty-four he was immured in a locked cabin. He was not permitted even to enter the public dining room, his meals being brought to him by Mr. Froest himself after the rest of the passengers had fed. He was, besides, constantly watched and was subjected to a most rigorous search immediately on coming aboard.

His only relaxation was an occasional game of chess with some of the passengers who kindly came to his cabin to play with him by permission and in the presence of his keeper. This sea imprisonment lasted exactly one month and a day, and Balfour afterward declared that it was the most trying experience of a captivity that was destined to continue for nearly twelve years.

One of the longest and in its later stages one of the pleasantest voyages ever undertaken by an unconvicted criminal was that which Charles H. Davidson, the notorious forger, made some years back in the custody of Chief Inspector Murray of the Canadian department of justice.

Murray tracked the wanted man to Mexico and secured his extradition to Canada. But then his difficulties began. He could not bring his prisoner to Canada by the direct route through the United States, for immediately Davidson set foot in that country he could have demanded to be released. There was therefore nothing for it but to convey him by way of Jamaica and England and thence back across the Atlantic to Quebec.

On the voyage Murray kept Davidson under close observation, although allowing him considerably more freedom than Froest allowed Balfour. When, however, he had got safely as far as London, he was both mortified and astonished at the likelihood of his having had all his trouble for nothing. The law was, he was told, that a prisoner extradited from a foreign country to a British colony could not be kept in custody in England for longer than twenty-four hours, nor could he be taken as a prisoner on board a British ship sailing from a British port.

There was a dilemma. Davidson was free as air—he had only known it. But Murray was equal to the occasion. "Look here, Davidson," he said, "I've got you safe. There is only the last stage of the journey to complete. If I allow you to travel saloon with me as an ordinary first class passenger will you give me your word to play me no tricks?"

To this proposition Davidson, knowing nothing of the real state of affairs, was naturally quite ready to agree. And so it came to pass that one of the most notorious criminals Canada has ever known came home in state; free, yet not free, a voluntary prisoner, and yet an involuntary one.—Pearson's Weekly.

Tactful Truth.

"I appeal to Mr. Verity, whose truthfulness nobody doubts," said the outraged hostess, with a glitter in her eye. "Mr. Verity, do you think I supply my boarders with bad butter?" The others looked eager attention to see how Mr. Verity would get out of it.

"Madam," he answered, with a bow. "the truth on which you compliment me forces me to declare that your butter is one of your strong points."—Baltimore American.

SEQUOIA PARLOR TO BE HERE SUNDAY

Its Native Sons will Have Their Annual Outing in Lawrence
Villa Park in This City.

The Native Sons of Sequoia Parlor, No. 160, of San Francisco, will hold their annual picnic in Lawrence Villa Park in this city tomorrow (Sunday). They will turn out to the number of several hundred strong and will bring their mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts with them. They will arrive here on a double-header train of the Northwestern Pacific at 10:33 in the forenoon and proceed to Lawrence Villa Park, where they will enter into the spirit of the occasion and remain until 6:21 in the evening, when the natives will board the train for their homes in the metropolis.

During their stay at the Park the visitors will amuse themselves with dancing in the commodious pavilion, feasting, playing of games and athletic stunts. The affair will be a swell one and orderly in every way.

In planning these gatherings at Lawrence Villa Park, the new proprietors, Messrs. Gere & Bruchou, will aim to make them both orderly and enjoyable and a credit to their beautiful and inviting park in particular and Sonoma in general.

The Sonoma Valley brass band of twenty-eight pieces has been engaged by Messrs. Gere & Bruchou to furnish the dance music and for an out-door concert.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

VINEBURG NEWS AND PERSONALS

"Easy Jim" Tells of the Week's Happenings in His Section

Miss May Batto is visiting at her old home here.

Mrs. Fred. Batto accompanied her husband on his weekly business trip to Petaluma last Wednesday.

Hay is being cut and cured, and cherries picked and shipped, but my goodness gracious! aren't it cold today.

Mrs. Peter Dieux, a poultry raiser on the Hyde tract, visited the Bay City last Saturday, returning home Monday evening.

Railroad people are making extensive improvements on the station grounds at this place, which improves the looks of things in this burg.

Mr. and Mrs. Trautewetter of the metropolis are visiting their son, Albert Trautewetter, and his family at Brookside, their pretty home on the Hyde tract.

Last Sunday was a perfect day in this vicinity as far as the weather was concerned. Our people took advantage of it and things were lively around here the livelong day.

Mrs. Dixon, accompanied by her sister, Miss Alice Church, alighted from the train here Monday evening from San Francisco for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Church.

From the looks of things the people of Vineburg will be proud of their new school house when it will have been completed, as the contractors, Messrs. Pierce & Baron, are doing some classy work on the building.

Richard Archibald McGill died in Pieta, Mendocino county, last Saturday. The deceased was the son of Mrs. P. L. McGill and husband of Mrs. Amelia McGill. He was also a brother of George and Frank McGill of this place and the late Mrs. Mabel Hardy. He had been sick for some time. He was aged 39 years, five months and thirteen days. The remains were laid to rest in Cloverdale on Monday. May he rest in peace.

Oh, yes! there was a game of baseball in Santa Rosa last Sunday. We hadn't the pleasure to see it though, but one of the "tuff reporters of the Golden Bear" was there, and says she is proud of the showing made by the Sonoma boys and especially expressed her appreciation of the work done by pitcher Albert Jansen and Ray Poppe behind the bat.

B. E. Darling has accepted the management of the Sonoma baseball nine. We are pleased to note that this baseball club is getting along fine and we predict that Mr. Darling will carry it to a successful issue. Ex-Manager Lester Small has done much in building up the team, as the game played by the home team under his management in Santa Rosa last Sunday testifies to.

$100 REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. PETALUMA'S NEW LIQUOR ORDINANCE

Does Away with Sunday Closing of Saloons--No New Licenses
Except for Hotels

Petaluma's new liquor license, which will be adopted at the next meeting of its City Council, does away with the closing of saloons in that city and makes many more important changes for the business interests of its people. The Argus says that under its provisions the usual applications must be filed together with petitions, etc., and only American citizens will be granted licenses, while any alien now holding a license is given a certain time in which to declare his intentions.

No license will be granted for a saloon within 300 feet of a school or a church.

Saloons must be closed from midnight until 6 o'clock the next morning, but special licenses will be provided for occasions of unusual moment, such as celebrations.

Permits can be revoked by the council if the holders after an examination are found guilty of violating any of the provisions of the ordinance, or if it is found that the holder is not a proper person to conduct such a business.

There can be no ladies' or family entrances and no back room, side room or upper apartments in any saloons in Petaluma.

As saloons go out of business, no new licenses shall be granted until the saloons are cut down to twenty-five, which will be the maximum number. This does not include any new hotels which may be built or opened.

No females shall be allowed in saloons either as patrons or to serve liquors. Of course this does not include hotels or restaurants.

Memorial Day

The customary observance of Memorial Day will be held at Union Hall on Tuesday at 10 o'clock. The school children will march to the hall and take part in the exercises, the program of which appears below. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to be present and aid in this patriotic observance.

All the school children of the town and valley are particularly invited to meet at the Grammar school in good season to march with the others. A specially cordial invitation is extended to all veterans and widows of veterans to be present and take seats on the platform.

The exercises will not be over one hour in length and at the close the flowers will be taken to the cemetery and the graves of the old soldiers will be decorated. All who have flowers to spare are asked to bring them to the hall, and also all who have carriages or autos can render a great service by being at the hall at 11 o'clock prompt and assist in conveying women and little children to the cemetery.

This being a municipal occasion, and not one prepared by any organization, it is hoped that the townspeople and those in the suburbs alike will assist by their presence and otherwise if able.

The program of exercises follows:

1. Invocation.....Father Comerford
2. Remarks.....W. W. Fairbanks (President of the Day)
3. Flag salute and song.....Children
4. Recitation.....Marjorie Buchanan
5. Song, "California".....Children
6. Address.....Rev. A. B. Roberts
7. Song, "America".....Children
8. Benediction.....Rev. S. L. Lee

The Mantle of Charity.

The lady was making some remarks about the kind of clothing some other ladies at church had on.

"The finest garment a woman can wear," said her husband, "is the mantle of charity."

"Yes," she snapped, "and it is about the only dress, judging by the fuss they make over the bills, that some husbands want their wives to wear."

Sweden's "Church Boat."

The "church boat" is a popular institution in Sweden. It brings families to service from the farms around Lake Siljan to Leksand. The water route is the nearest and most convenient, and so the big boat goes from farm to farm along the shore picking up the church-goers, who later return by the same route—Wide World Magazine.

Counting the Cost.

"What's the cost of a marriage license?" asked a youth whose fancy had lightly turned to thoughts of conjugal felicity.

"Well," answered his friend, "30 shillings down and your entire salary each week for the rest of your life!"—London Telegraph.

Where Time Doesn't Count.

A party of East Indian natives were found sitting in a row on the platform of a station after the train had left, and, being asked the reason, one of the men replied, "Oh, sahib, we are waiting till the tickets are cheaper."

MENTAL DISCORD.

An Uncompromising Enemy to Happiness and to Health.

It is a law that every state of mind, whether good or bad, affects every cell in the system and is outpictured in the body, says Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine. We are thus the arbiters of our fate through our thoughts, emotions and passions.

The time will come when we shall know how to refresh ourselves by mental chemistry—that is, by holding in our minds the antidotes of the things that have wearied us or vexed us, by holding the mental attitude which will neutralize the thought enemies that have thrown our bodies into confusion.

There is nothing so deadly to happiness as mental discord. It paralyzes the thinking ability and destroys the power of concentration and effectiveness.

All diseases and sickness of whatever kind are the outpouring of some form of discord. If the mind is kept as happy as possible it is difficult for discord to get a foothold in the body. A happy mind is the best possible health producer, disease killer and discord destroyer.

For centuries man's happiness was looked upon by many earnest, thinking people as a condition largely beyond his control. They seemed to think that it depended mostly upon the temperament one happened to develop and that there were other things of so much more importance that we should not consider it too seriously or take precious time to cultivate it directly.

We are beginning to find, however, that even as an economical investment it pays immensely to make a business of being happy and being just as good to ourselves as possible, although not in a selfish way. We could not be good to ourselves in the higher sense by being selfish.

POET OF MANY VERSES.

An Anecdote of Pellegri, an Eighteenth Century Bard.

The impecunious French poets of the middle eighteenth century used to consort at the cafes, where sometimes they would pick up customers. One of the worst and at the same time the most facile of the bards was Pellegri, of whom a characteristic story is told in "An Eighteenth Century Marquise." One day a newcomer entered the cafe and began complaining that he was going to be married and had no epithalamium for his wedding. Pellegri hastened to offer one of his own compositions. A deal was soon arranged, and the price agreed upon was 20 sous a verse. The poet disappeared. The bridegroom was presently accosted by a stranger, who began a conversation on various subjects and suddenly said:

"By the by, my friend, what price are you paying Pellegri?"
"Twenty sous a verse."
"H'm."

"Is that too dear?"

"No"—doubtfully—"not if you fixed the length of the poem."

"I never thought of doing that."

"When is he to bring your epithalamium?"

"Tomorrow morning."

"Tomorrow morning!" cried the stranger. "Why, you must be rolling in money!"

"What do you mean?"

"That you will have to pay for at least a thousand verses."

"Oh, what a fraud!" exclaimed the bridegroom and rushed off to find Pellegri in his attic. The versifier had just completed his hundredth verse.

A Sartorial Freak.

Food is "chow" in the east, meals are "tiffin" and an I. O. U. is a "chit," China and India making these additions to dietetic nomenclature.

The most shocking sartorial thing visible in the east is the dinner jacket of white duck affected by the British and, alas, by some expatriated Americans. It is cut very short, barely reaching the suspender buttons, and flares widely in front. High collar and black tie complete the abominable combination. Yet no Briton can eat his evening meal without being thus garbed. White duck "pants," of course, cover the unmentionables. The white suits of Mark Twain and Frank Vanderlip which once excited New York are outdone and quite as a matter of course.—New York World.

Barrett Wendell's Pun.

When Professor Wendell of Harvard entered upon his Sabbath year he remained in Cambridge some weeks after his leave of absence began and persisted in taking part in the departmental meeting. The head of the department protested.

"Sir," said he, "you are officially absent. You are non est."

"Oh, very well," replied Professor Wendell; "a non est man is the noblest work of God."—Success Magazine.

A Matter of Choice.

An old dandy servant devoted to General Jackson waited on him in the general's last hours. Right after the general's death a preacher asked Rastus if he thought Jackson would go to heaven.

"I don't know, boss, ef 'ell go foah sure, but he can ef he wants to," replied the dandy.—Independent.

With Due Care.

Dignity is a very proper sort of thing, but don't put on too much of it or you may be taken for the butler.—Lippincott's.

Constancy of purpose is certainly one of the secrets of success.
